

General Employee HR Policy Handbook

Effective Date: January 1, 2025 | Version 1.0

Section 1: Paid Time Off (PTO)

Full-time employees accrue 15 days of PTO per year during their first three years of employment. After three years, accrual increases to 20 days per year. After five years, employees receive 25 days per year. PTO must be approved by a direct manager at least 5 business days in advance for requests exceeding 3 consecutive days. Unused PTO of up to 5 days may be rolled over into the following calendar year. PTO payouts upon termination are provided for employees with 1 or more years of tenure.

Section 2: Sick Leave

Full-time employees receive 10 days of paid sick leave per year. Sick leave does not roll over and is not paid out upon termination. Employees must notify their manager as soon as possible when taking sick leave. For absences exceeding 3 consecutive days, a doctor's note may be required. Sick leave may be used for the employee's own illness or to care for an immediate family member.

Section 3: Remote Work Policy

The company supports a hybrid work model. Employees may work remotely up to 3 days per week with manager approval. Employees must be available during core hours of 9am to 3pm local time. All remote employees must maintain a professional and distraction-free workspace. Remote work arrangements are subject to manager discretion and may be adjusted based on business needs with 2 weeks notice.

Section 4: Parental Leave

Primary caregivers are entitled to 12 weeks of fully paid parental leave. Secondary caregivers receive 4 weeks of fully paid leave. Leave must be taken within 12 months of the birth, adoption, or foster placement of a child. Employees must provide at least 30 days advance notice where practicable. Parental leave runs concurrently with FMLA where applicable. Employees are guaranteed their same or equivalent position upon return.

Section 5: Performance Reviews

Performance reviews are conducted on a semi-annual basis in June and December. Employees are rated on a 5-point scale: 1 (Unsatisfactory), 2 (Needs Improvement), 3 (Meets Expectations), 4 (Exceeds Expectations), 5 (Outstanding). Ratings of 4 or above are eligible for merit increases during the annual compensation cycle in January. Employees rated below 2 for two consecutive review cycles will be placed on a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP).

Section 6: Benefits

The company offers comprehensive health insurance including medical, dental, and vision coverage for employees and eligible dependents. Employees are eligible for benefits starting on their first day of employment. The company provides a 401k retirement plan with a company match of up to 4 percent of base salary. Additional benefits include life insurance, short-term and long-term disability insurance, and an Employee Assistance Program (EAP) for mental health support.

Section 7: Code of Conduct

All employees are expected to conduct themselves professionally and ethically in all business interactions. Harassment, discrimination, or retaliation of any kind based on race, color, religion, sex, gender identity, national origin, age, disability, or any other protected characteristic will not be tolerated and may result in immediate termination. Employees must disclose any conflicts of interest to their manager and HR within 30 days of becoming aware. Violations should be reported through the company Ethics Hotline.

Section 8: Onboarding

New hires are required to complete all onboarding documentation within their first 3 business days. This includes I-9 verification, direct deposit setup, benefits enrollment, and mandatory compliance training. Each new hire is assigned an onboarding buddy from their team for the first 30 days. New employees participate in a company orientation program during their first week covering company culture, values, and key systems.

Section 9: Offboarding

Employees are requested to provide a minimum of 2 weeks notice prior to resignation. Upon separation, employees must return all company property including laptops, badges, and equipment. Final paychecks will be issued in accordance with applicable state law. Accrued but unused PTO will be paid out upon termination for employees with 1 or more years of service. Exit interviews are encouraged to provide feedback on the employee experience.

Section 10: Training and Development

The company is committed to supporting employee growth and development. Full-time employees are eligible for tuition reimbursement of up to 5000 dollars per year for approved courses related to their role or career development. Employees have access to an online learning platform with thousands of courses. Managers are encouraged to discuss career development goals during regular 1-on-1 meetings and performance reviews.

Section 11: Workplace Safety

The company is committed to providing a safe and healthy work environment in compliance with all applicable OSHA regulations. Employees must immediately report any workplace injuries, accidents, or unsafe conditions to their manager and HR. The company maintains workers compensation insurance for all employees. Regular safety training is provided and employees are expected to follow all safety protocols and procedures.

Section 12: Anti-Harassment Policy

The company has a zero-tolerance policy for workplace harassment of any kind. This includes verbal, physical, or visual conduct that creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment. Sexual harassment including unwanted advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature is strictly prohibited. Complaints should be reported to HR immediately and will be investigated promptly and confidentially. Retaliation against anyone who reports harassment is strictly prohibited.
